

Structure	Focus
	Relate action	Describe details	Discuss an idea
Simple	Use a strong verb to label the action something or someone is doing: Lightning hit the building with huge force.	Focus on what something looks, sounds, feels or smells like: The glow from the fire lit the night sky up.	Start sentence with an idea or feeling and use a strong verb or is/ was to describe it: Awe crept over my skin. My fear was mixed with awe.
Intro phrase	Use an extra information word at the start of a the sentence to provide more information about how, where or when something is happening (see full list below): With a sound like a bomb exploding, lightning hit the building.	Use an extra information word at the start of a the sentence to provide more information about what something looks, feels, sounds or smells like as it's happening: Like a light switch had suddenly been turned on, the fire from the lightning lit the night sky up.	Use an extra information word at the start of a the sentence to provide more information about the idea or feeling or connecting ideas or feelings: Although I felt fear, I also felt awe. As fear crept through me, the beauty of the fire also drew me to it.
Add ons	Use extra information words (see full list below) , -ing words and commas to add more details about actions: Lightning hit the building with huge force, sending timber and iron flying everywhere and creating a huge plume of spoke.	Use extra information words (see full list below) , -ing words and commas to add more details about what something looks, feels, sounds or smells like: The glow from the fire lit the night sky up, making the stars sparkle even more brightly.	Use extra information words (see full list below) , -ing words and commas to add more details about the idea or feeling: The fear crept deep inside me, drilling into me veins.

Extra information words: To start or add onto a sentence	To add onto a sentence in, within, above, under, over at after, before through, with, by from, back, near, beyond for, to like	and because since

Quick three:

1. Write three sentences in a row
2. The sentences must follow on from each other and make sense
3. Each sentence must have a different focus
4. Each sentence must use a different structure